

[Letter from Woody Guthrie to Alan Lomax, September 8, 1941]

This is out on a creek of some kind close to Portland. We just rambled up, We just blowed in; We'll holler a few, and take off again. Lots of awful pretty female girlis here on these picnic grounds — its all for National pretense.

Take it easy.

How was S.A.?

Woody (Pete)

PORTLAND SEP 8 9 AM 5 1941 OREG.

RECEIVED SEPT 12 1941 MAIL AND DELIVERY DIVISION THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

Alan Lomax Library of Congress Music Division Washington, D.C.